GENERAL OFFENSE #	11-411127
UNIT FILE NUMBER	H11-429

That James L. Cooper is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case Number 11-411127;

There is probable cause to believe that Johnnie Lee Wiggins B/M/072563 committed the crime(s) of Murder within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

On 12-24-11, at approximately 2258 hrs, uniformed officers of the Seattle Police Department (SPD) were dispatched to 317 NW 74th St, located in the City of Seattle, County of King and the State of Washington. The 911 caller was MH, a W/F/13 yoa. She was reporting that her mother, Prudence HOCKLEY had been "pushed" and was bleeding from her head. M.H. also told the 911 dispatcher that the suspect was, "Johnnie" and described him as in his 40's to 50's and wearing a black shirt. She stated that he had left the scene driving a blue older Saab westbound from the residence. Subsequently detectives learned that WIGGINS owns a 1999 blue in color 4dr Saab Wa #206XKN.

Upon officers' arrival they contacted MH and another witness, GB a B/M/43 yoa, who had been present at the time of the assault. MH was frantic while GB directed the officers to where the victim was at. She was located lying on her back on a cement driveway on the west side of the residence. The officers noticed immediately that HOCKLEY had significant head and facial injuries with trauma to the back of her head that was bleeding profusely. HOCKLEY also had a swollen right eye that had significant bruising and multiple cuts and abrasions all over her face. Officers noted that there was also bruising on the side of her neck and that she was barely breathing. HOCKLEY was unresponsive to the officers. The Seattle Fire Department arrived and immediately began to work to stabilize HOCKLEY then transported her to Harborview Medical Center (HMC).

Statements were obtained from GB and MH by officers at the scene. GB stated that HOCKLEY had contacted him via text message about meeting for a drink earlier in the evening. He arrived at the victim's residence at approximately 2145 hrs. They were having a drink and watching TV when the victim's boyfriend, "Johnnie" called the victim. GB described HOCKLEY as being frustrated from the call. Minutes later the victim received another call from "Johnnie" and he was outside. HOCKLEY began to panic and asked GB to exit out the back door. GB stated he left the residence out the back door and as he was nearing the alleyway gate he heard a male voice yell, "Hey man!" GB turned and saw a figure of a man and stated to him that he did not want to have anything to do with him. The man responded back, "Yeah, Whatever!" GB then heard voices that sounded like the victim and MH. MH was screaming, "Leave my mom alone!" As GB continued to the gate he heard a loud thump against the side of the house. He turned back to investigate. As he was approaching the driveway he could hear MH yelling, "What did you do?". GB then began to run to the front of the house. As he was doing this he nearly tripped over the victim who was now lying on the concrete driveway. GB heard a car engine revving then driving away fast.

MH told police that when she arrived home from a friend's residence the victim was on the phone with "Johnnie". HOCKLEY ended the call but "Johnnie" continued to call back but HOCKLEY would not answer. "Johnnie" then showed up at the front door and knocked on it but nobody answered it. MH stated she heard "Jonnie" walk down the steps. MH opened the door to see where he had gone and she saw him walking around the side of the house. MH told HOCKLEY this and HOCKLEY then went outside and told MH to stay inside. MH waited at the front door then went to her bedroom to see if she could hear what was being said. She then heard a loud thump against the house. MH ran outside and to the side of the house where "Johnnie" and her mother were and now saw her mother laying on her back. She ran back inside to find GB but he was not there. She ran back out front and saw "Johnnie" walking away in the driveway towards his car. MH asked Johnnie, "What did you do to my mom?" and he calmly responded, "It was GB." MH looked back at her mother and GB was now next to the victim. GB called 911 at that point.

OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On 12-25-11, HOCKLEY's medical condition went from serious to critical and HMC notified SPD she was placed on a life support system. The SPD Homicide unit was contacted and myself and my partner, Detective Takemoto were assigned to investigate the case. I obtained a cell number (206-434-9505) for Jonnie L. WIGGINS B/M/072563 from patrol officers who had attempted to locate WIGGINS. WIGGINS was identified by the witnesses as the victim's boyfriend and the "Johnnie" on 12-24-11. I called the number and the voicemail system identified the number as belonging to WIGGINS. A message was left and WIGGINS called back. WIGGINS stated that he was in Oregon on his way to a friend's place for Christmas dinner. I asked if he was willing to give me a recorded statement over the phone regarding the events of the evening of 12-24-11 and he stated he would. He stated he was parked in front of the victim's residence when he called her. He had told me earlier during our call that he only had "pretended" to be at home. There was a red truck parked out in front of the residence. He asked the victim if he could come over and the victim told him that she had decided to spend Christmas Eve with her daughter. WIGGINS stated he then questioned her about GB and the type of vehicle he drove. When the victim answered him he told her he was actually out front and wanted to know about the red truck there now. WIGGINS stated that he knocked on the front door but received no answer. As he was leaving, he stated to me that he turned back to check on his motorcycle that he keeps at the victim's residence, which is parked in the garage. That is when he saw a male leaving from the backdoor. He stated that they had "words" and then he turned back around and just left. I then asked WIGGINS if he saw the victim outside at all during this time and he stated he did not. I asked him if he talked to MH that night and he state he did. He stated she came outside when he was leaving and asked him what he had done to her mother and he told her that he was looking for the guy that did it. He then drove around the corner and left. I asked WIGGINS if he returned to the residence and he responded, "No, I never came back." WIGGINS also stated that he had received a "threatening" phone call related to this and stated the number was 206-834-5524. He stated that the message that was left for him stated, "You better pray that the cops find u before I do!". We arranged to meet on 12-26-11.

On 12-25-11, at approximately 1608 hrs detectives of the SPD Homicide unit learned from HMC that the victim was taken off the life support system she was on and passed away due to the injuries she sustained from the assault on the evening of 12-24-11. Later that evening myself and Detective Takemoto met with the victim's oldest daughter, WHS, a W/F/24 yoa. She currently lives in Seattle but not with the victim. WHS currently lives with her boyfriend, MM, a W/M/24 yoa. WHS explained that her mother had talked to her about "Jonnie" and described him as controlling, jealous and short tempered. WHS stated that she was aware that he suffered from "roid rage". I asked her where she had heard that term and she stated her mother had told her that. She also told us of her mother's co-worker that had been at the hospital that day that had talked about how the victim had suffered a black eye from WIGGINS. WHS was able to provide contact information for the co-worker, JS a W/M/62 yoa. MM informed us that he had called WIGGINS while at the hospital from his cellular phone, 206-834-5524. He did not identify himself but he stated he left a message about how WIGGINS better hope the police find him before he did. He stated that was "dumb" and apologized. But he stated he received a call back from WIGGINS that went to voicemail. MM stated when he played it he didn't believe that it was intended for him but for GB. He then played it for us. I recognized the voice as WIGGINS and he stated that the victim had been "Ho'ing" (street term for whore) around with other men and that he (GB) had a chance to say something to him that night but he didn't. I directed MM to save the message and I would download it at a later date.

On 12-26-11, I received a call from WIGGINS. He asked if he could have one more "business" day before meeting. He stated that he had contacted his family and that they recommended that he get an attorney before meeting with us. He stated that he had thought about "running" but his family told him to stay and deal with the situation. He stated that he was too "old" to "run". He then explained to me that all he was trying to do on 12-24-11 was deliver a gift to HOCKLEY. He didn't mean "for anyone to get hurt", but when he saw the guy leaving out back, things just "went bad" from there. He then stated he should have just stayed home that night. We agreed to meet on 12-27-11 at approximately 1200 hrs.

On 12-26-11, Detective Takemoto contacted JS and obtained a recorded statement from him. JS told Det. Takemoto he is a co-worker of the victim. The witness has known HOCKLEY for approximately 12 years and described himself as a close friend. Through frequent conversations with HOCKLEY about her personal life, JS was aware that the victim had two men in her life that she was romantically involved with. JS stated that GB is a boyfriend that HOCKLEY has been seeing for the past 7 years. The witness described the relationship between GB and HOCKLEY as "on and off". JS felt that GB did not provide everything the victim needed in a relationship which eventually led to HOCKLEY seeing WIGGINS. HOCKLEY and WIGGINS apparently started dating last summer when they both met at a gym where HOCKLEY was a member and WIGGINS an employee. It was around this time that WIGGINS was arrested for probation violation for a crime committed in the state of Georgia. WIGGINS, according to JS, was eventually released from jail at which point he travelled back to Georgia to take care of legal matters. From his conversations with HOCKLEY, JS gathered that the relationship between the victim and WIGGINS was a tempestuous one with frequent arguments between the two. HOCKLEY told the witness that a frequent cause of these fights was a result of WIGGINS being very jealous of other men. JS stated that on the night of 12/23/2011, he received a call from HOCKLEY who was upset and crying. Hockley told the witness that she and WIGGINS had been involved in a physical fight at her home. HOCKLEY said that during this altercation, she was punched in the face by WIGGINS and received a black eye. WIGGINS left HOCKLEY's house after the assault. JS stated that for safety sake, he tried to convince the victim to leave her home and have her and her daughter, MH, stay at his house. HOCKLEY declined the witness's offer and assured him that she would call 911 if WIGGINS returned. HOCKLEY, according to JS, told her daughter that she received the black eye in an accident. The victim did not report this assault to the police. On 12/24/2011, the witness arranged to have Christmas Eve dinner at his home with several friends including the victim and MH. Earlier in the day, HOCKLEY told JS that she had been contacted by WIGGINS who she indicated felt sorry for the black eye he had given her. As a result, WIGGINS reportedly went out and purchased makeup for her. The victim told JS that the makeup was to help hide the black eye WIGGINS had given her the previous day. JS believed that HOCKLEY applied this makeup before coming to the Christmas Eve dinner in an attempt to mask the bruising around her eye.

INCIDENT NUMBER	11-411127

JS does not specifically recall noticing HOCKLEY's black eye that night although he later discovered that some of his dinner guests may have noticed. During the night, JS noticed that HOCKLEY received several text messages. The witness indicated that at approximately 2145hrs, Hockley received a call on her cell phone. The caller apparently told HOCKLEY that he would soon be meeting her at her home in Seattle. HOCKLEY then excused herself from JS's dinner party and drove back home with her daughter. JS learned the next day that HOCKLEY was in the hospital and went to see her.

On 12-27-11, an autopsy was performed on HOCKLEY's body at the Office of the King County Medical Examiner. The examination revealed that Hockley died from injuries inflicted by numerous extremely forceful blows to her face and head. Contusions and abrasions could be seen all over the face and eyes. Beneath them, the bones of the face revealed a multitude of fractures. One of these, described by pathologists as a "Le Fort 3" fracture, extended horizontally across HOCKLEY's face at the level of the eyes. The sides, middle, and bottom of both orbits (the bones around the eyes) were fractured, as were both frontal sinuses, and the bones beneath each cheek. At the back of HOCKLEY's head was a large laceration shaped like an inverted V. Each arm of the V was 3-4 inches long, and between them the scalp was completely detached from the skull. Beneath this laceration was a depressed fracture of the bones of the head extending from the base of the skull all the way over the top of the head and down across the forehead to the nose. Along the length of this fracture, various other fractures extended into the surrounding bones. On the right side of the head, near the crown, was another laceration. From the center of this laceration, a linear pattern of parallel abrasions -- apparently made by the object that caused the laceration -- extended for several inches. A very similar pattern of parallel abrasions could be seen on an injury to the right side of the face between the ear and the eye. Below these injuries, on the right side, the first (highest) rib was fractured. Near this fracture, a vertebral artery was ruptured. On both hands, the backs of the fingers were contused and lacerated, as was the back of the right hand. It appeared that these injuries may have been incurred as she attempted to ward off blows.

Detectives had been in communication with WIGGINS over the last 72 hrs regarding this incident. WIGGINS responded to the SPD Homicide unit at approximately 1105 hrs on 12-28-11 with an attorney. He was informed of his Miranda warnings and at the direction of his attorney declined to be interviewed further. He was then transported to K.C.J. and booked.

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct to best of my knowledge and belief. Signed and dated by me this 28th day of DEC, 2011, at Seattle, Washington.

1 CAUSE NO. 11-1-08534-8 SEA

2 PROSECUTING ATTORNEY CASE SUMMARY AND REQUEST FOR BAIL AND/OR 3 CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

4 The State incorporates by reference the Certification for Determination of Probable
5 Cause written by Detective James L. Cooper with the Seattle Police Department regarding case
6 number 11-411127.

7 REQUEST FOR BAIL

8 Bail in the amount of $5,000,000 is warranted in this case. The attack on the victim
9 (whose extensive injuries are described in the Certification for Determination of Probable Cause)
10 was extraordinarily brutal. The victim's 14-year-old daughter, who saw the defendant approach
11 her residence, watched as her mother left the residence to speak to him, heard at least part of the 12 fatal assault, and is terrified that the defendant will return to harm her.

13 Wiggins has a 1999 conviction in Washington for Possession of Stolen Property in the 14 Second Degree. In other states, however, Wiggins has an extensive criminal history that 15 includes a number of convictions for assaults -- including assaults against women.

16 North Carolina: In 1987, Wiggins was convicted in Durham of Assault with Intent to 17 Inflict Serious Injury, a misdemeanor. His sentence included restitution to a woman for her 18 medical bills, and a prohibition against contacting her. In 1988, he was convicted of Assault on 19 Female, a misdemeanor. In 1989, he was charged with Breaking or Entering and Assault on a 20 Female, both misdemeanors. He was convicted of Breaking or Entering; the assault charge was 21 dismissed. Later in 1989, in Raleigh, he was convicted of Assault to Inflict Serious Injury again.

22 Georgia: In 1991, Wiggins was convicted of Obstructing a Police Officer, and two
23 counts of misdemeanor Battery. Later that year he was convicted of Public Indecency/Indecent 24 Exposure. In 1996, he was convicted of Simple Battery and shoplifting (misdemeanors). In 1999, Wiggins was arrested and charged with Aggravated Assault and in 2003 he was found guilty of that charge (a felony). He was sentenced to five years in prison and placed on probation for five years. In 2002 he was convicted of violating the terms of his probation and sent to prison. He completed his sentence in January of 2008.

1 In 2008, Wiggins was released from prison in Georgia and put on probation. He
2 requested a transfer through an interstate compact agreement, and was permitted to complete his
3 probation in Washington State, where he was to be supervised until January 2013. According to 4 Washington Department of Correction officials, Wiggins attacked his parole officer here in May 5 18th of this year and was arrested for that offense. A search of Wiggins' residence yielded a 6 large quantity of anabolic steroids.

COUNTY OF KING, STATE OF WASHINGTON, THE FOLLOWING DID OCCUR:

On above date and time WIGGINS went to the victim's residence at 317 NW 74th St, located in the city of Seattle, County of King and the State of Washington. WIGGINS was in a dating relationship with her since 2/11. WIGGINS called victim on the phone and victim told him that she was alone with daughter. WIGGINS saw a different vehicle parked in front. Victim had a male friend and daughter at residence. WIGGINS knocked on door but received no answer. The male friend tried to leave through back door but WIGGINS saw him. Victim went outside to talk to WIGGINS and was assaulted by him. WIGGINS left the scene immediately. Statements were obtained by Male friend and daughter. Both witnesses heard a loud "thud" against the house and found the victim laying on the driveway and WIGGINS walking away. WIGGINS told detectives later that he was there but did not ever see the victim or harm her. Prudence HOCKLEY, the victim, suffered major head fractures and trauma. She never regained consciousness. She died of her head injuries on 12-25-11. An autopsy was conducted on the victim on 12-27-11. The autopsy showed that the victim suffered severe facial and head fractures causing severe injury to the brain. The cause of death was ruled as a Homicide by the K.C. Medical Examiner's office. On 12-28-11 WIGGINS responded to the SPD Homicide office with his attorney and was taken into custody for death of Prudence Hockley.
